

I listen to K-Love, on 91.1 in Greeley, Colorado. I would be DEVESTATED if signals changed and it were displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming. People need to hear positive, uplifting music, and parents need to know that their children will not be inundated with inappropriate language. We need stations like K-Love!